

Are you passionate about Human Rights issues in Saudi Arabia? If so, keep reading...

Project Title	Are you passionate about Human Rights issues in Saudi Arabia? If so, keep reading...
Project Summary	The U.S. Department of State's Embassy in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, is looking for two VSFS e-Interns with very strong Arabic skills who are interested in developing experience tracking and reporting on human rights issues in Saudi Arabia.
Country	Saudia Arabia
Agency	Department of State
DoS Office	NEA
Post	RIYADH
Section	POL
Number of Interns	2

Project Description

- Monitor traditional and online Arabic-language media, including social media.
- Track NGO reporting.
- Produce a daily media summary on human rights issues.
- Research, as directed, specific topics on human rights for the annual Human Rights Report.

You'll be working directly with the the political officer in Riyadh in charge of writing the annual Human Rights Report.

The internship could start during the summer and must start no later than August 15. It would continue through May 2017.

Desired Skills Interests

Skill

Editing

Additional Information

To express interest, please email BonfieldMC@state.gov with your resume, a writing sample in Arabic, and a short statement of interest no later than August 15.

The 2014 Human Rights Report on Saudi Arabia is located here: <http://photos.state.gov/libraries/saudi-arabia/231771/public/SAUDI%20ARABIA.PDF>

Language Requirements

Language Speaking Proficiency		Reading Proficiency	Importance
Arabic	No practical proficiency	Full professional proficiency	Required